

No one was found until Jesus was victorious over sin and death.

The Covenant with David and Levi: If you can break My covenant for the day and My covenant for the night, so that day and night will not come at their appointed time; Then my covenant may also be broken with David my servant so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levitical priests, My ministers. (Jeremiah 33: 20-21).

The eclipse at His crucifixion may have technically broken the covenant with these tribes. During the eclipse day and night were not at their appointed time. This dark sun was a miracle on two levels.

- Duration. Normally, solar eclipses last about eight minutes, this darkness persisted for three hours.
- Timing. Normal solar eclipses only occur during a new moon and are impossible during a full moon. Since this solar eclipse occurred during a full moon, it was a miracle that was not caused by natural forces or natural time cycles. God broke the covenant.

God chose to keep the covenant with David and end the covenant with Levi. According to verse 26, He would restore the fortunes of David and have mercy on him.

The New Priesthood

Jesus had to be both a priest and king. But the law forbids a priest from the tribe of Levi or a king from the tribe of Judah to hold any other office. Therefore, to keep this law Jesus became a king from the line of Judah, but He became an eternal priest from the line of Melchisadek

David. Because it is still day and night time and there are no other kings of God on earth, He became king from this tribe. Therefore, He was born from Judah so that He could inherit the throne.

Melchisadek. Since He was from Judah, he could not be from Levi because He could not legally hold both offices during day and night time. But on earth there was an eternal line of priests of God. He could claim this line.

Levi. Therefore there is no need for the priesthood of Levi to continue. It can pass away. According to Jeremiah 33: 20, God has the right to suspend this line of priests at a time when night does not follow day.

Under the eternal priesthood, all people could become priests, not just the tribe of Levi. This is what happens in heaven.
