

The Earth's Final Warning!

God's last message to a world in rebellion.

Our Creator will re-create this rebel earth by fire.
Would a loving God do so without a warning?

And would God not tell us how to avoid being destroyed with the Rebel and his subjects?

WHAT WILL HAPPEN

WHAT TO DO

This is the Final Warning.

- 1) You will know what will happen and
- 2) You will know what to do to avoid destruction.

Objective - To glorify God.

Motivation - Your salvation and mine.

The First Angel's Message

And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice,

Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of his judgment is come:

and worship Him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters

(Revelation 14:6,7)

WHAT DO WE DO ?

THREE THINGS

FEAR GOD

GIVE GLORY TO HIM

WORSHIP HIM

FEAR GOD

WHAT DOES IT MEAN ?

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY IT MEANS ?

PROVERBS 8:13

The fear of the LORD [is] to hate evil:
pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth (perverse mouth), do I hate.

GIVE GLORY TO HIM

1 Corinthians 6:

Verse 19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost [which is] in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? Verse 20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

1 Corinthians 10:

Verse 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 3:

Verse 16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and [that] the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? Verse 17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which [temple] ye are.

WORSHIP HIM

John 4:21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

verse 22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

verse 23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

verse 24 God [is] a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship [him] in spirit and in truth.

The central theme of this struggle is about worship !!!

WORSHIP

HOW

If we're right in the WHO but wrong in the HOW we are not worshipping our Creator even if we think we are. And vice-versa. As there will be true worship there will also be false worship - the worship of the Beast and his image. (Remember the woman Jesus was talking to in John 4:23?) Ultimately, the Dragon himself, which is Satan the great Deceiver, is worshipped for he receives all false worship through human agencies - the Beast and his image!

TRUE WORSHIP will have the WHO and the HOW both right.

The Third Angel's Message

And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice,

If any man worship the 1) beast and his 2) image, and receive his 1) mark in his forehead, or 2) in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. (Revelation 14:9-12)

WORSHIP

This is the issue in these last of the last days. This has always been the issue. What Lucifer failed to receive in heaven he has been continually seeking to receive on earth.

Either we worship and glorify God, the Creator of heaven and earth and everything in them, or worship the beast and his image which is ultimately the worship of the Dragon, the Devil.

Before we can find out more information about the mark, we have to know who the beast is.

The call to everyone is to honor and give glory to the Lord God Almighty, our Creator, and worship Him Who created all things and forsake any form of false worship for it is the very core of idolatry.

Where did the number 666 come from? What are its origins? How is it connected to the Mark of the Beast?

To answer these questions, God's Word gives us the direction - it has to do with Worship. More specifically, false worship.

“The religion of the god Baal was widely accepted among the ancient Jews, and although it was put down at times, it was never permanently stamped out.

“Kings and other royalty of the ten Biblical tribes worshipped the god. The ordinary people ardently worshipped this sun god too because their prosperity depended on the productivity of their crops and livestock.

“The god's images were erected on many buildings. Within the religion there appeared to be numerous priests and various classes of devotees. During the ceremonies they wore appropriate robes.

“The ceremonies included burning incense, and offering burnt sacrifices, occasionally consisting of human victims. The officiating priests danced around the altars, chanting frantically and cutting themselves with knives to inspire the attention and compassion of the god.

“In the Bible Baal is also called Beelzebub, or Baalzebub.” (Encyclopedia Mythica)

While other sources say that there is no one Baal but a slew of gods under the name ‘Baal’ (Baalim implies many kinds of ‘Baal’ which simply means ‘lord’) the fact remains that worship of Baal or Baalim is idolatry to God!

Ezekiel 8:16,17

“And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here?”

“Idolatry” was and still is an abomination to the LORD and Ancient Israel was guilty of it many times in their history.

No one in their right mind wants to have the Mark of the Beast. So how does the Devil deceive people?

By mixing truth with error.

Some truth + error = falsehood.

We must worship God in spirit and in truth - absolute and undiluted truth!

"As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the days of the Son of man, they did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all (Luke 17:26-27)."

As in Noah's time where only eight people were saved, only a very small percentage will believe the Three Angels' Messages - God's Final Warning.

“I saw that God had honest children among the nominal Adventists, and the fallen churches, and ministers and people will yet be called out from these churches, before the plagues shall be poured out, and they will gladly embrace the truth. Satan knows this, and before the loud cry of the third angel, raises an excitement in these religious bodies, that those who have rejected the truth may think God is with them. He hopes to deceive the honest, and lead them to think that God is still working for the churches. But the light will shine, and every one of the honest ones will leave the fallen churches, and take their stand with the remnant.”

Great Controversy 1858 Edition, p. 172, Para. 1.

(emphasis supplied)

If ministers and people will be called out from nominal Adventists and the fallen churches, where is the remnant
- inside or outside?

“People will yet be called out ...
and embrace the truth!”

amulets

"The ancients claimed that God works by mathematics. Their religion was a conglomeration of religion, astrology, alchemy, physical and mental science, and mathematics. Ancient astrology divided the starry heavens into 36 constellations. These were represented by "Sigilla Solis," or the sun seal. These amulets were worn by the pagan priests, and they contained all the numbers from 1 to 36. By these figures they claimed to be able to foretell future events. These amulets were usually made of gold, yellow being the sun color. While being carried, these amulets were wrapped in yellow silk, as it was thought that the bearer would thus receive the beneficial powers believed to emanate from the jewel." (Unfolding Revelation pp125-127)

Slide 4-7: Egyptian Deities

New International Encyclopedia. NY: Dodd, 1917. Volume 7, p. 529

“Three became the most universal number of deity. There were three primary gods of Babylon Anu, Bel, and Ea representing heaven, earth, and the abyss.

“Sun worship is one of the most primitive forms of religion, and early man sometimes distinguished between rising, midday, and setting sun. The Egyptians, for example, divided the Sun god into three deities:

Horus, “rising sun”

Ra or Rê, “midday sun”

Osiris, old “setting sun”

“Pyramids are big structures with square bases and four smooth triangular-shaped sides that come to a point at the top. Many ancient people used pyramids as tombs or temples. “They buried the king’s body inside or beneath a pyramid in a secret chamber that was filled with treasures of gold and precious objects. Many scholars believe that the pyramid shape has a religious meaning to the Egyptians. The sloping sides may have reminded the Egyptians of the slanting rays of the sun, by which the soul of the king could climb to the sky and join the gods.”

World Book Encyclopedia

The pagans believed in the three phases of the Sun as the three manifestations of the supreme Deity as evident in the Egyptian Sun gods.

Second Phase - At its
Zenith (high noon)

Third Phase - At sunset
(when the Sun deity goes into the netherworld)

First Phase - At Sunrise

One Sun but “three manifestations/deities”.

“Three deities”

Three Phases of the Sun god
(symbol is commonly known as the Triquetra)

In history this symbol (the Triquetra and other variants like the Triskela) eventually represented the three phases of the Sun and other groups of three's like earth, wind and fire.

There was something about the three phases of the Sun-god that captured the pagans' fancy. The number three was magical to them. They had many gods but the Sun god was the supreme deity. All of these resulting from the three phases of the Sun.

The first day of the week was called Dies Solis or the Day of the Sun (from where we get the name Sunday for the first day of the week) the day the Sun-god is worshipped.

The pagans worshipped their Sun god on Sun day.

The number 3 as used by the pagans:

$$1 + 2 + 3 = 6$$

$$1 \times 2 \times 3 = 6$$

$$1^3 + 2^3 + 3^3 = 36$$

$$6 \times 6 = 36$$

Is there a connection between 36 and 666?

6	32	3	34	35	1	1	32	34	3	35	6
7	11	27	28	8	30	30	8	27	28	11	7
19	14	16	15	23	24	20	24	15	16	13	23
18	20	22	21	17	13	19	17	21	22	18	14
25	29	10	9	26	12	10	26	12	9	29	25
36	5	33	4	2	31	31	4	2	33	5	36
Table 1 As on the amulets						Table 2 Another similar arrangement

(Each column or row (6 x 6 grid) containing all the numbers from 1 through 36 adds up to 111. $111 \times 6 = 666$ - to represent the Sun god).

$$\begin{aligned}
 &1 + 2 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 + 8 + 9 + 10 + \\
 &11 + 12 + 13 + 14 + 15 + 16 + 17 + 18 + 19 + 20 + \\
 &21 + 22 + 23 + 24 + 25 + 26 + 27 + 28 + 29 + 30 + \\
 &31 + 32 + 33 + 34 + 35 + 36 = \mathbf{666}
 \end{aligned}$$

The pagans counted this way to come up with 666 as the number for the Sun god whom they consider the supreme Deity of all the celestial bodies.

These amulets, they believed, would give them protection from evil, having the number of the Sun god (666).

An eye inside a triangle - the 'Third Eye'.

What does this 'Third Eye' mean
(also known as the Eye of Horus/Osiris)?

This represents the eye of the mind or soul and not a physical eye - a sight beyond sight.

The Illuminati, "the Enlightened Ones", and related secret societies use this symbol.

But we can really trace this idea of “Enlightenment” way back to the beginning of time!

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

The Hebrew word translated to 'eyes' is singular!

Strong's 5869 `ayin - an eye (literally or figuratively)...

Genesis 3:5

For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

The Devil pitched his 'enlightenment' deception to Eve. Since the Fall of mankind, the Rebel has desired to unite the whole world under his New World Order to Worship only one being - Himself!

He has devised various means to subvert worship by using human beings and organizations to achieve his purpose.

A WITCH'S BOOK OF SHADOWS

The 'Book of Shadows' is a book that contains instructions and the like on how to cast spells. It is used in witchcraft and is the 'companion' book for the T.V. series 'Charmed'.

This variation of the triskela (see above), also known as the triquetra, adorns several Irish grave markers dating to 4 B.C. — and the skin of a frozen female mummy, believed to be a shaman, recently reinterred in its Mesopotamian grave.

Wiccans in the first place, which is where the whole Wicca vs. witchcraft argument begins.

While the word wicca (or wiccae) is known to exist in Old Saxon and mean, at least roughly, magic worker, it seems to have fallen out of use until the mid-1930s, when Gerald Gardner began assembling his thoughts and philosophies (many drawn from mythology, folklore, and magical societies like the famous Order of the Golden Dawn) and brought these practices together under the term Wicca. He claimed that this order was a continuation of the Old Religion of Britain. (Which makes the dating of "The Rede of the Wiccae" important to Wicca's defendants and detractors alike.) Others, however, claimed their own traditions, which they called witchcraft, were the direct religious descendants of old Britain. Both groups continue to consider each belief a complete religion quite separate from the other.

Yet, even among groups claiming similar beliefs, there are differences in the level of tolerance for one another and even the degree to which they deem a practice a separate religion. Some followers of witchcraft deplore the Wiccan use of terms like craft or witch; a significant percentage of both groups practice no magic whatsoever; and a growing group of Wiccans define themselves in terms of multiple belief systems, for example Christian-Wiccans,

Inside the book "Book of Shadows", it describes a variant of the triquetra symbol - the triskela - and what it means.

'The Power of Three' - one of the episodes from the 'Charmed' T.V. series now a paperback. In the television series, these three sisters are supposed to be 'good' witches. Notice the flame on an open book.

Again the number 3 which comes from the 3 phases of the Sun.

"Prue's going to kill me," Piper Halliwell muttered to herself. Her arms loaded with groceries, she rushed up the rain-slicked steps of the red-and-cream-colored Victorian house she shared with her older sister. She didn't know what time it was, but she knew she was late—really late.

Piper and Prue had been living in the old San Francisco house for about six months—ever since their grandmother died. Grams had willed the house to them and their younger sister, Phoebe, who was living in New York City. The three sisters loved the house and knew it well—they'd grown up in it, raised by Grams after their mother died when they were little. Their father hadn't been around to take care of them.

Here's page 1 of 'The Power of Three'.
Notice the symbol on top of the page.
Each starting page of each chapter has this symbol.

In 1967, the Beatles had released their first album dedicated to the promotion of psychedelic drugs, Sergeant Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band. The album contained a fantasized version of an LSD trip, called "Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds", or L.S.D. for short. It became a top seller.

This Beatles' album was clearly dedicated to Satanist Aleister Crowley. It was released 20 years, to the day, after Crowley's death in 1947. Its title song began with the lyrics, "It was twenty years ago today...". The album's cover featured a picture of Crowley (2nd from left, top row).

Aleister Crowley, a known Satanist, designed this set of Tarot cards.

The Ace of Cups, Hierophant, and Ace of Disks all came from the set of Tarot cards by Aleister Crowley, a known Satanist/sorcerer/magician, and illustrated by Frieda Harris.

Notice the three intersecting circles on each card and note the 666 on the Ace of Disks card.

The Ace of Disks represent the whirling forces. The disks are supposed to represent the Solar hierarchy. Notice the three intersecting circles in the middle which have the number 6 6 6. 1 sun god manifested in three phases.

This is a Ouija board used to divine the future and communicate with 'the dead' who, in reality, are evil angels personating the dead.

Notice the symbol again - intersected lines of three intersecting circles (with a complete circle at the center).

Trying to know the future apart from God is divination. It is an abomination to God.

Deuteronomy 18:10-13

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch.

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God.

Piper and Prue had been living in the old San Francisco house for about six months—ever since their grandmother died. Grams had willed the house to them and their younger sister, Phoebe, who was living in New York City. The three sisters loved the house and knew it well—they'd grown up in it, raised by Grams after their mother died when they were little. Their father hadn't been around to take care of them.

THE STRONGEST BIBLE EVIDENCE FOR THE TRINITY

One person who recently shared his struggles over the Trinitarian version of the Godhead on the Internet found himself so troubled by the alleged pagan and papal origins of the doctrine that he concluded that its acceptance by Adventism could possibly be the "omega" of deadly apostasy foretold by Ellen White.

He did, however, appeal to his fellow Adventists to approach the issue with the seriousness and sincerity of the "fair-minded" (NKJV), or "noble" Bereans (KJV)¹ described in the book of Acts. They "received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so" (Acts 17:11).

In the spirit of the "noble" Bereans, this first chapter will seek the clearest, most straightforward scriptural answers to the following questions:

Is there sufficient biblical evidence in support of the Trinitarian claims of the vast majority of the Christian tradition and contemporary Seventh-day Adventism at least to merit serious consideration of these claims? Or is it so sketchy as to suggest that the doctrine is simply one vast piece of deception that has come straight out of pagan polytheism and has been mistakenly "baptized" by apostate Christianity (and thus unwittingly by Seventh-day Adventists)?

We invite the reader to carefully follow the lines of biblical evidence brought forward in the following pages and then ask yourself this question: Is the evidence sufficient that we should honestly

We are warned in the Third Angel’s Message to avoid the worship of the beast and its image and receiving its mark!

Can anything be more of an abomination to our Creator than idolatry - the Sun god which has the number 6 6 6, the number of the beast being worshipped instead of “Him Who made heaven and earth?”

NEW KING JAMES VERSION

NKJV

The purpose for the NKJV is, supposedly, to make things clearer and by removing the 'thy's and thou's' and because we don't use it in today's English.

The problem with this reasoning is that in 1611, when the Authorized KJV was published, people no longer speak with 'thy and thou'! That time was past way back in the 1300's - a good three hundred years have passed!

If you compare the Authorized KJV and the NKJV, you will find out that many changes have been made. Changes include the replacing of the words 'damned, damnation' into 'condemn, condemnation'. (see Mark 3:29, Mark:16:16, John 5:29, 2 Thessalonians 2:12).

The word 'servant' is replaced by the word 'slave'. Instead of servants of God or a servant of Christ, Christians are portrayed as 'slaves of God' and a 'slave of Christ'. Clearly, the connotation is a negative one.

In 2 Timothy 2:15, the word 'study' is removed! Here's the NKJV:
"Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

'Study' is a much better word. Of course, the devil doesn't want us to study God's Word! Don't discard the KJV - it's the most faithful even with its faults!

What does Acts 17:29 say?

Is this practice in harmony with God's Word?

Did the ancient Israelites make such symbols to represent the God of their Fathers; the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob?

Or did they abstain from making such engravings?

Acts 17:29-31

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

Revelation 14:7 "... Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters."

Who is the Creator? Is the Creator a trinity?

The answers to the two most important questions affect the subjects below them.

Knowing the true identity of the Creator will provide a solid foundation for the understanding of the affected subjects.

Otherwise, there will be confusion - an attribute of MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT!

Rev.17:5

After the earth was created, and the beasts upon it, the Father and Son carried out their purpose, . . . And now God said to His Son, “Let us make man in our image.” Gen. 1:26 (Ellen White, The Spirit of Prophecy, vol. 1, pp. 24, 25)

Revelation 14:7 “... Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.”

Who is the Creator? Is the Creator a trinity?

Questions on Christ's pre-human existence; human nature; the nature or identity of the Holy Spirit; etc - all of these are important studies on their own and deserve their own study.

However, addressing each and any of these subjects DOES NOT address the issue of the Creator's IDENTITY as found in the First Angel's Message!

Revelation 14:7 “... Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.”

Who is the Creator? Is the Creator a trinity?

Will our Creator command us to worship Him yet fail to identify Himself? Or will the LORD our God ask us to love Him with all our heart, soul, mind and strength then make His identity a “mystery”?

the very mystery of God. If a particular doctrine of faith no longer makes sense to a person, the person should go right on seeking. To know what a doctrine says is one thing; to gain an insight into its meaning through the gift of understanding is something else. When in doubt, "Seek and you will find." The person who seeks by reading, discussing, thinking, or praying eventually sees light. The person who talks to God even when God is "not there" is alive with faith [162].

3. One God, Three Divine Persons

[232-267]

The Catholic Church teaches that the fathomless mystery we call God has revealed himself to humankind as a Trinity of Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit [238-248].

Three Persons, One God

[249-267]

The mystery of the Trinity is the central doctrine of Catholic faith. Upon it are based all other teachings of the Church. In the New Testament there is frequent mention of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. A careful reading of these passages leads to one unmistakable conclusion: each Person is presented as having qualities that can belong only to God. But if there is only one God, how can this be [199-202]?

The Church studied this mystery with great care and, after four centuries of clarification, decided to state the doctrine in this way: in the unity of the Godhead there are three Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—truly distinct one from another. Thus, in the words of the Athanasian Creed: "The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three gods but one God" [249-256].

Creator, Savior, Sanctifier

[257-260]

All effects of God's action upon his creatures are produced by the three divine Persons in common. But because certain effects of the divine action in creation remind us more of one divine Person than another, the Church ascribes particular effects to one or the other divine Person. Thus,

What is the central doctrine of the Beast whose mark will be enforced - the MARK OF THE BEAST - and compel everyone to the false worship of the Dragon instead of our Creator?

through these sections, because it's a violation of the Sabbath. There is strong feeling against anyone who would desecrate it.

The early Christians were obsessed with the fact that they came out of a Jewish background. Yet God did something new and real for them in the Easter experience, so they would have the Sabbath, and so they would gather together as the Christian sect on Sunday morning and celebrate the resurrection.

But there is a difference between the Sabbath and Sunday. You work until the Sabbath, and then you rest. Sunday is the day that gives you strength to work the six days in front of you. The Sabbath is the end of the week; Sunday is the beginning. The Sabbath is from sundown to sundown, but Sunday is from midnight to midnight. The Sabbath is a day of rest, but Sunday is a day of worship. The Sabbath has a penalty to it, if you break it; Sunday has no penalty, except that you shortchange yourself.

The Christian draws his strength from Sunday. It's a time to let God talk to the inner man. It's a time when we make real that practice which says, in effect, "Be still and know that I am God." The Christians took the value of the Hebrew Sabbath and added to it the great joy of the Christian resurrection. We have a marriage of the two in the Christian community.

The commandment said, "Remember the Sabbath Day." So we come together as a body of Christ and remember what God has done. It's a sacrament. Worship and Bible study make Sunday a day when the soul is rekindled, as well as a day when the body is rested. You may miss a dinner party or a trip to the beach by observing the Sabbath, but you won't miss heaven. Your life won't disintegrate. It just depends on how you want to spend your time. You'll have thousands of Sundays in your adult life; how will you spend them?

Prayer: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. You are my God and I will give You thanks; You are my God and I will exalt You. Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." (Psalm 118:24,28,29) Amen.

The Christian draws his strength from Sunday. It's a time to let God talk to the inner man. It's a time when we make real that practice which says, in effect, "Be still and know that I am God." REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMITMENT

60. Holy Day or Holiday? (Commandment IV)

Exodus 31:12,13 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so you may know that I am the Lord, who makes you holy.'"

Society has gotten caught up in a seven-day, twenty-four-hour-a-day week. Some of you work in a business where you have no control over what you do on Sunday. Some of you are managers of businesses with policies set by someone else in a distant city, and you're caught. You can't get out of it, and you don't know what to do; but you know it's wrong and it violates everything you are.

Thoreau said if you want to destroy the Christian faith, first take away Sunday. He was right; it's a holy day. For those who know Jesus Christ as Savior, it cannot be a holiday. For those of you who have gathered around the cross and have been saved and washed clean by His blood, it's a sacrilege to do anything else on that day except to celebrate what God has done.

If we abuse Sunday, we're going to destroy something beautiful that God has given. No Sunday means no church; no church means no worship; no worship means no religion; no religion means no morality; no morality means no society; no society means no government; no government means anarchy. That's the choice before us.

So, what do you do with the day? Do you sit around and read the Bible all day long? That might not be a bad idea for some of us. There are always those people who say, "I can worship God out on the golf course." Golf is a great sport, but it isn't worship! Those people who want to get out into God's great outdoors are God's great blue-domers. They're going to worship under the blue dome. But that isn't worship; it's recreation. Worship is when you're with the body of Christ.

Don't ever negate public worship, for something flows between us when we're together. Those who are full give to those who are empty; those who are thirsty come to get their cups filled. God is here; God's presence is among us, even though you don't hear thunder and lightning.

Here are some suggestions for the use of your Sabbath.

What We Learned in Sinai's Shadow

Carolyn Shealy Self and William L. Self

Confessions of a Nomad A Devotional Guide

When Carolyn and Bill Self toured the Sinai, they saw far more than the beauty and desolation of the desert. They saw their journey across Sinai as a metaphor for modern life.

"It seemed to us . . . that we had been there before. We felt an indescribable sense of God's presence in the vast sands of this desert. . . . We could almost see that ragtag brood, whom Moses led out of Egypt, as they camped along the way. We felt that we could hear them as they sat around the campfire, grumbling and worrying about tomorrow.

"The bleakness, the beauty, the vastness, and even the mystery were somehow familiar to us. You see, we've traveled the deserts of life; we've been on the backside of God's mountain."

Confessions of a Nomad is a guide for modern Christians crossing the desert of life. It follows Moses' journey across the Sinai through Scripture. Each passage ends with a prayer.

"Are you in bondage? Are you a slave? Many of us live as did those enslaved Hebrews," write the Selfs. "Some are wincing under the lashes of such slave masters as a bad marriage, unreconciled grief, economic disaster, and illness. Be assured that there is deliverance. . . . God provides a way out."

Bill Self has earned a national reputation as a gifted preacher, pastor, author, lecturer, and innovator in church growth. He and Carolyn led the Wieuca Road Baptist Church in Atlanta to a place of prominence in Georgia and the nation. More recently they have brought the Johns Creek Baptist Church in Alpharetta, Georgia, into the vanguard of fast-growing churches.

Carolyn Self has distinguished herself as an author, teacher, and seminar leader in the area of marriage and family, with special emphasis on the pastor's home.

'SABBATH'

The WHO of worshipped has already been replaced by the Trinity AND “Godhead” doctrine (which is really Tritheism). What’s left is the HOW of worship. That’s why in these last days of the last days, the greatest test will be that of the Fourth Commandment - keeping the Sabbath day holy - the HOW of True Worship.

Can one receive the Seal of God if one is not worshipping the Creator in spirit and in truth?! Never!

One is not "keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus" if one is NOT worshipping the Creator but a false god - a "Christianized" Sun god! Keeping the Sabbath includes worship of the Creator!

Jews and Muslims worship the one true God.

Most Christians worship the Son
but at the expense of the Father!

John 4:23

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

True worship starts with worshipping the Father. To worship God is to obey him. And it pleased God that we also worship and highly exalt His only begotten Son. The more we highly exalt Christ the more God is glorified! (Hebrews 1:6; Philippians 2:10,11) Obedience is true worship! We were commanded to worship God and His Son. Lucifer had issues with worshipping the Son!

THE MARK OF THE BEAST

The sealing is taking place even now as you read this!

“Just as soon as the people of God are sealed in their foreheads -it is not any seal or mark that can be seen, but a settling into the truth, both intellectually and spiritually, so they cannot be moved -just as soon as God's people are sealed and prepared for the shaking, it [the shaking] will come.” - Last Day Events p291.

"There is to be a shaking among God's people; but this is not the present truth to carry to the churches. It will be the result of refusing the truth presented."
- Selected Messages Vol 2 p13.

“... the shaking ... would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people.” - Early Writings, p270.

"Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues ..."

(Rev 18:4) This is God's message of love to you. Will you hear and heed God's call of mercy?

Tomorrow is not guaranteed. Whatever you've done in the past are covered by Christ's death on the cross.

We are no longer rebels in God's eyes but His sons and daughters, through Christ. Accept Christ and what He has done and is doing for you as your Advocate with the Father as evidence of God's love and follow Him. He will empower you to overcome your weaknesses and to walk uprightly in God's eyes.

God now sees you righteous. Accept this by faith!

The everlasting Gospel is NOT based on a Trinity but a loving God sending His only begotten Son!

John 3:16,17

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

John 17:3

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

The person that God sent into the world who “was made flesh, and dwelt among us” (John 1:14) was the same person who died on the cross! All of the Son of God died! He died the Biblical definition of death - total cessation of life:

- unconscious
- emotionless
- unaware of the passing of time

Ecclesiastes 9:5,6

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

The divinity and pre-existence of our Saviour are most clearly proved by those scriptures which refer to him as "the Word." "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him, and without him was not anything made that was made." John 1:1-3.

This expresses plainly a pre-existent divinity. The same writer again says: "That which was from the beginning, ... the Word of life." 1 John 1:1.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

What John calls the Word, in these passages, Paul calls the "Son," in Heb. 1:1-3. "God... hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power." In other places in this letter this same exalted one is called Jesus Christ. In these passages we find the divinity or "higher nature" of our Lord expressed. Indeed, language could not more plainly express it; therefore it is unnecessary to call other testimony to prove it, it being already sufficiently proved.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

The first of the above quotations says the Word was God, and also the Word was with God. Now it needs no proof - indeed it is self-evident - that the Word as God, was not the God whom he was with. And as there is but "one God," the term must be used in reference to the Word in a subordinate sense, which is explained by Paul's calling the same pre-existent person the Son of God. This is also confirmed by John's saying that the Word "was with the Father." 1 John 1:2; also calling the Word "his Son Jesus Christ." Verse 3.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

Now it is reasonable that the Son should bear the name and title of his Father, especially when the Father makes him his exclusive representative to man, and clothes him with such power - "by whom he made the worlds." That the term God is used in such a sense is also proved by Paul, quoting Ps. 45:6, 7, and applying it to Jesus. "But unto the son, he saith, Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows." Heb. 1:8, 9. Here the title of God is applied to the Son, and his God anointed him. This is the highest title he can bear, and it is evidently used here in a sense subordinate to its application to his Father.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

It is often asserted that this exalted one came to earth and inhabited a human body, which he left in the hour of its death. But the Scriptures teach that this exalted one was the identical person that died on the cross; and in this consists the immense sacrifice made for man - the wondrous love of God and condescension of his only Son. John says, "The Word of life," "that which was from the beginning," "which was with the Father," that exalted, pre-existent One "which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled."
1 John 1:1, 2.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

“It will no doubt appear to many to be irreverent to speak thus of the doctrine of a trinity. But we think they must view the subject in a different light if they will calmly and candidly examine the arguments which we shall present. We know that we write with the deepest feelings of reverence for the Scriptures, and with the highest regard for every Scripture doctrine and Scripture fact. But reverence for the Scriptures does not necessarily embrace reverence for men's opinions of the Scriptures.”

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

It is not our purpose to present any argument on the doctrine of the trinity, further than it has a bearing on the subject under consideration, namely, on the Atonement. And we are willing, confidently willing to leave the decision of the question with all who will carefully read our remarks, with an effort to divest themselves of prejudice, if they unfortunately possess it. The inconsistencies of Trinitarians, which must be pointed out to free the Scripture doctrine of the Atonement from reproaches under which it has too long lain, are the necessary outgrowth of their system of theology. No matter how able are the writers to whom we shall refer, they could never free themselves from inconsistencies without correcting their theology.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

Many theologians really think that the Atonement, in respect to its dignity and efficacy, rests upon the doctrine of a trinity. But we fail to see any connection between the two. To the contrary, the advocates of that doctrine really fall into the difficulty which they seem anxious to avoid. Their difficulty consists in this: They take the denial of a trinity to be equivalent to a denial of the divinity of Christ. Were that the case, we should cling to the doctrine of a trinity as tenaciously as any can; but it is not the case. They who have read our remarks on the death of the Son of God know that we firmly believe in the divinity of Christ; but we cannot accept the idea of a trinity, as it is held by Trinitarians, without giving up our claim on the dignity of the sacrifice made for our redemption.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

And here is shown how remarkably the widest extremes meet in theology. The highest Trinitarians and lowest Unitarians meet and are perfectly united on the death of Christ - the faith of both amounts to Socinianism.

Unitarians believe that Christ was a prophet, an inspired teacher, but merely human; that his death was that of a human body only. Trinitarians hold that the term "Christ" comprehends two distinct and separate natures: one that was merely human; the other, the second person in the trinity, who dwelt in the flesh for a brief period, but could not possibly suffer, or die; that the Christ that died was only the human nature in which the divinity had dwelt. Both classes have a human offering, and nothing more.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

No matter how exalted the pre-existent Son was; no matter how glorious, how powerful, or even eternal; if the manhood only died, the sacrifice was only human. And so far as the vicarious death of Christ is concerned, this is Socinianism. Thus the remark is just, that the doctrine of a trinity degrades the Atonement, resting it solely on a human offering as a basis. A few quotations will show the correctness of this assertion.”

- (J. H. Waggoner, 1884, The Atonement In The Light Of Nature And Revelation, pages 164, 165)

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

“As before remarked, the great mistake of Trinitarians, in arguing this subject, is this: they make no distinction between a denial of a trinity and a denial of the divinity of Christ. They see only the two extremes, between which the truth lies; and take every expression referring to the pre-existence of Christ as evidence of a trinity. The Scriptures abundantly teach the pre-existence of Christ and his divinity; but they are entirely silent in regard to a trinity. The declaration, that the divine Son of God could not die, is as far from the teachings of the Bible as darkness is from light.

Doctrine of a Trinity Subversive of the Atonement

And we would ask the Trinitarian, to which of the two natures are we indebted for redemption? The answer must, of course, be, To that one which died or shed his blood for us; for "we have redemption through his blood." Then it is evident that if only the human nature died, our Redeemer is only human, and that the divine Son of God took no part in the work of redemption, for he could neither suffer nor die. Surely, we say right, that the doctrine of a trinity degrades the Atonement, by bringing the sacrifice, the blood of our purchase, down to the standard of Socinianism."

Who Raised Jesus From the Dead?

(He really died - "all of Him" died!)

Here are a few of the 30+ passages:

Acts 5:30

The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

Romans 6:4

Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Romans 8:11

But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Who Raised Jesus From the Dead?

(He really died - "all of Him" died!)

Here are a few of the 30+ passages:

1 Corinthians 6:14

And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

Galatians 1:1

Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

Ephesians 1:19, 20

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, 20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

Who Raised Jesus From the Dead?

(He really died - "all of Him" died!)

Here are a few of the 30+ passages:

1 Thessalonians 1:9,10

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

Over and over again, God's Word is replete with verses that very clearly says:

God raised His son Jesus from the dead!

Kings 8:39). Yet Jesus consistently knew what people were thinking, “for he knew what was in man” (John 2:25). “Nathanael said to Him, ‘How do You know me?’ Jesus answered and said to him, ‘Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you’” (John 1:48 NKJV).

- ◆ Through the Spirit, Jesus is omnipresent. “Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20 NKJV). “For I am with you, and no one will attack you to hurt you; for I have many people in this city” (Acts 18:10 NKJV).
- ◆ He has power to give life, and even resurrected Himself. “No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again” (John 10:18). “I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live” (John 11:25).

Therefore, by considering the primary definitions of God, and seeing that Jesus fits every one of those definitions, obviously, Jesus must be eternal God.

“He has power to give life, and even resurrected Himself.”

- p11, The Trinity (2003 booklet by Doug Batchelor, published by Amazing Facts)

Jesus Christ did not “resurrect Himself” as we have proven from God’s Word. Absurdities like this come from the Trinity doctrine.

Story of Redemption p.231.1/ The Resurrection of Christ / “Thy Father Calls Thee”

Then the angel from heaven, with a voice that caused the earth to quake, cried out, “Thou Son of God, Thy Father calls Thee! Come forth.” Death could hold dominion over Him no longer. Jesus arose from the dead, a triumphant conqueror. In solemn awe the angelic host gazed upon the scene. And as Jesus came forth from the sepulcher, those shining angels prostrated themselves to the earth in worship and hailed Him with songs of victory and triumph.

Jesus, the Heavenly Intercessor

Gordon Jenson

-President of Spicer Memorial College, Pune, India

“....In order to eradicate sin, and rebellion from the universe and to restore harmony and peace, one of the divine Beings accepted ,and entered into, the role of the Father, another the role of the Son. The remaining divine Being, the Holy Spirit, was also to participate in effecting the plan of salvation. All of this took place before sin and rebellion transpired in heaven.” RH, Oct. 31, 1996

Jesus Christ NEVER taught nor identified that God is a Trinity but that God is His Father.

Jesus Christ NEVER taught nor practiced keeping any other day holy but the Sabbath, the seventh day of the week which starts at the set of sun on Friday and ends at the set of sun on Saturday night.

Why not believe and worship like our Master?!

Jeremiah 3:3

"Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed."

The Latter Rain will NEVER fall on those who worship other gods - a spiritual whore according to Jeremiah 3:3 - regardless of your sincere desire to worship God. IF you refuse to worship our Father and His Son only, the Creator of heaven and earth...Probably because you have the whore's forehead.

Forsake all forms of false worship at this very moment and worship God in spirit and in truth, instead of the Dragon, while there is still time!

God is placing a seal on His people according to their decisions. Choose our Father because He is our Creator!

God will NEVER place His Seal on idolaters!

Worship our Creator in spirit and in truth (John 4:22-24) - He is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Lastly, whatever Jesus believed, taught preached and practiced, we should also believe, teach, preach and practice! Let Jesus Christ be the Author and Finisher of whatever beliefs we hold.

This is the SAFEST & FAITHFUL WAY to know what is truth!

If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. (Revelation 14:9-11)

"Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues ..." (Rev 18:4)

How does one "Come out of her"?

- Worship our Father and stop believing in a "Christianized" Sun god - the Trinity! (John 4:22-24; Rev 14:6-12)
- Separate idolatry from self or separate self from idolatry.
- To obey God is to worship Him Who created all things!

Notice the prominent display of the Triquetra...

This design is very subtle but, nevertheless, is derived from the same concept...

An 'eye' inside an implied triangle!

And remember the open book with a flame over it?

Is it at all possible that this entity is now controlled by the “Enlightened Ones”!

'The Power of Three' - one of the episodes from the 'Charmed' T.V. series now a paperback. In the television series, these three sisters are supposed to be 'good' witches. Notice the flame on an open book and also the 6 6 6 outlined in the Triquetra.

Again the number 3 which comes from the 3 phases of the Sun.

"Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues ..." (Rev 18:4)

2 Corinthians 6:14-18

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

In Matthew 24:15,16 our Master warned:

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place,

16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains

“As the siege of Jerusalem by the Roman armies was the signal for flight to the Judean Christians, so the assumption of power on the part of our nation, in the decree enforcing the papal sabbath, will be a warning to us. It will then be time to leave the large cities, preparatory to leaving the smaller ones for retired homes in secluded places among the mountains.” -- Testimonies, vol. 5, pp. 464, 465.

ANCIENT ISRAEL

AD 66

Cestius leads Roman army in surrounding Jerusalem.

Christians fled the city of Jerusalem for Pella.

AD 70

Titus leads Roman armies and this time demolishes Jerusalem all of God's people left there.

Those who stayed could not escape.

MODERN ISRAEL

1888

US Congress almost passed a National Sunday Law.

Christians warned to leave the big cities.

Soon!

US Congress will pass National Sunday Law and persecute God's people left there.

It will be impossible to leave the cities by then and no one can escape.

“There will be such strife and confusion in the cities, that those who wish to leave them will not be able.” -- GC Bulletin, April 6, 1903

Doesn't this tell us that NOW is the time to make our move?!

“I tell you now, that when I am laid to rest, great changes will take place. I do not know when I shall be taken, and I desire to warn all against the devices of the devil. I want the people to know that I warned them fully before my death.” -

Manuscript 1, February 24, 1915

“... a great work must be done for His people before they could stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. I was pointed to those who claim to be Adventists, but who reject the present truth, and saw that they were crumbling and that the hand of the Lord was in their midst to divide and scatter them now in the gathering time, so that the precious jewels among them, who have formerly been deceived, may have their eyes opened to see their true state. And now when the truth is presented to them by the Lord's messengers, they are prepared to listen, and see its beauty and harmony, and to leave their former associates and errors, embrace the precious truth and stand where they can define their position.”

- Early Writings p. 69

“Study the 9th chapter of Ezekiel. These words will be literally fulfilled; yet the time is passing, and the people are asleep. They refuse to humble their souls and to be converted. Not a great while longer will the Lord bear with the people who have such great and important truths revealed to them, but who refuse to bring these truths into their individual experience. The time is short. God is calling; will you hear? Will you receive His message? Will you be converted before it is too late? Soon, very soon, every case will be decided for eternity.”

- Manuscript 1, p. 260

Ezekiel 9:

1 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer' inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

Ezekiel 9:

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer' inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

Ezekiel 9:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

Ezekiel 9:

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

GREAT CONTROVERSY

When the voice of God turns the captivity of His people, there is a terrible awakening of those who have lost all in the great conflict of life. While probation continued they were blinded by Satan's deceptions, and they justified their course of sin. The rich prided themselves upon their superiority to those who were less favored; but they had obtained their riches by violation of the law of God. They had neglected to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to deal justly, and to love mercy. They had sought to exalt themselves and to obtain the homage of their fellow creatures. Now they are stripped of all that made them great and are left destitute and defenseless. They look with terror upon the destruction of the idols which they preferred before their Maker. They have sold their souls for earthly riches and enjoyments, and have not sought to become rich toward God. The result is, their lives are a failure; their pleasures are now turned to gall, their treasures to corruption. The gain of a lifetime is swept away in a moment. The rich bemoan the destruction of their grand houses, the scattering of their gold and silver. But their lamentations are silenced by the fear that they themselves are to perish with their idols. {GC 654.1}

The wicked are filled with regret, not because of their sinful neglect of God and their fellow men, but because God has conquered. They lament that the result is what it is; but they do not repent of their wickedness. They would leave no means untried to conquer if they could. {GC 654.2}

The world see the very class whom they have mocked and derided, and desired to exterminate, pass unharmed through pestilence, tempest, and earthquake. He who is to the transgressors of His law a devouring fire, is to His people a safe pavilion. {GC 654.3}

The minister who has sacrificed truth to gain the favor of men now discerns the character and influence of his teachings. It is apparent that the omniscient eye was following him as he stood in the desk, as he walked the streets, as he mingled with men in the various scenes of life. {GC 654.4}

Every emotion of the soul, every line written, every word uttered, every act that led men to rest in a refuge of falsehood, has been scattering seed; and now, in the wretched, lost souls around him, he beholds the harvest. {GC 654.4}

Saith the Lord: "They have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace." "With lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life." Jeremiah 8:11; Ezekiel 13:22. {GC 655.1}

"Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture! . . . Behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings." "Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for your days for slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; . . . and the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape." Jeremiah 23:1, 2; 25:34, 35, margin. {GC 655.2}

Ministers and people see that they have not sustained the right relation to God. They see that they have rebelled against the Author of all just and righteous law. The setting aside of the divine precepts gave rise to thousands of springs of evil, discord, hatred, iniquity, until the earth became one vast field of strife, one sink of corruption. This is the view that now appears to those who rejected truth and chose to cherish error. No language can express the longing which the disobedient and disloyal feel for that which they have lost forever--eternal life. Men whom the world has worshiped for their talents and eloquence now see these things in their true light. They realize what they have forfeited by transgression, and they fall at the feet of those whose fidelity they have despised and derided, and confess that God has loved them.

{GC 655.3}

The people see that they have been deluded. They accuse one another of having led them to destruction; but all unite in heaping their bitterest condemnation upon the ministers. Unfaithful pastors have prophesied smooth things; they have led their hearers to make void the law of God and to persecute those who would keep it holy. Now, in their despair, these teachers confess before the world their work of deception. The multitudes are filled with fury. "We are lost!" they cry, "and you are the cause of our ruin;" and they turn upon the false shepherds. The very ones that once admired them most will pronounce the most dreadful curses upon them. The very hands that once crowned them with laurels will be raised for their destruction. The swords which were to slay God's people are now employed to destroy their enemies. Everywhere there is strife and bloodshed. {GC 655.4}

"A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the Lord hath a controversy with the nations, He will plead with all flesh; He will give them that are wicked to the sword." Jeremiah 25:31. For six thousand years the great controversy has been in progress; the Son of God and His heavenly messengers have been in conflict with the power of the evil one, to warn, enlighten, and save the children of men. Now all have made their decisions; the wicked have fully united with Satan in his warfare against God. The time has come for God to vindicate the authority of His downtrodden law. Now the controversy is not alone with Satan, but with men. "The Lord hath a controversy with the nations;" "He will give them that are wicked to the sword." {GC 656.1}

The mark of deliverance has been set upon those "that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done." Now the angel of death goes forth, represented in Ezekiel's vision by the men with the slaughtering weapons, to whom the command is given: "Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary." Says the prophet: "They began at the ancient men which were before the house." Ezekiel 9:1-6. The work of destruction begins among those who have professed to be the spiritual guardians of the people. The false watchmen are the first to fall. There are none to pity or to spare. Men, women, maidens, and little children perish together.

{GC 656.2}

We don't know when Sunday Law will come but it will be very soon. As the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation have shown, we are living in borrowed time. Let us work while there is still time. Share this message of love to anyone and everyone you know and, by God's grace, may you be found faithful among those "who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

May God bless you as you join in the spreading of the Everlasting Gospel as found in God's Three Angels' Messages - The Final Warning to a world in rebellion.
